

2A Hill View Rd, Mount Lawley

Luxurious Home with Spectacular City Views!

Large 1056sqm GREEN TITLE property.

STEEPED in a rich history, this stunning federation style home built circa 1916 has sweeping City views from the stunning Jarrah verandah, dining room and kitchen. Often regarded as the most prestigious street in Mount Lawley, this wonderful home on Hill View Road has rare City Views and overlooks the lights of the picturesque pedestrian bridge at Optus Stadium. Simply stunning.

Providing a seamless blend between old and new, the owner (a former president of the Mt Lawley Society) has gone to considerable lengths to showcase the highly desirable features of a home from this era with modern, sophisticated living.

Located on a large 1056sqm landholding, this wonderful home offers:

- Up to 6 bedrooms, a study, sitting room, lounge room and dining room. This home provides for so much space that every member of the family can remain independent while living under the same roof.
- Character features including high ornate ceilings as showcased in the master bedroom, decorative archways and cornices, polished Jarrah floorboards
